Interim Allocation List 02- Annual Transfers of Specialist Medical Officers (Effective 01.01.2025)

This refers to the earlier communication dated 10.03.2025, 19.03.2025, 25.03.2025, 07.04.2025, 10.04.2025, 23.04.2025, 08.05.2025 and 15.05.2025 regarding the Annual Transfers Specialist Medical Officers Specialist Medical Officers - 2025

Seniority marks used for this allocation have been calculated:

- Based on the online data/information submitted by individual applicants,
- Along with relevant observations submitted through the HRMIS system,
- Subject to verification against the official personal files maintained for each Specialist Medical Officer, if any complaints/observations are received.

Please note that this is not a final transfer order. It serves as a notice for reference and a call for appeals for reviewing. The final transfer list will be published only after appeal, review and subsequent approval by the HSC/PSC.

The Interim Allocation List for the Annual Transfers 2025 of Specialist Medical Officers is hereby published. This list has been prepared based on the declared eligibility criteria, seniority, and preferences submitted via the HRMIS Specialist Module and the observations of the transfer board.

All relevant officers and institutional heads are kindly requested to review the allocations carefully.

01. Appeals and Observations:

If there are any discrepancies in the allocation or if you have valid grievances, please submit an appeal via the HRMIS – Specialist Module (SM)

Link: <https://hrmis-sm.health.gov.lk> on or before 29th May 2025

Acceptable appeals may include:

- a) Valid grievances
- b) Errors in allocation
- c) Other valid discrepancies observed in the interim list
- d) Allocations to non-eligible applicants
- e) Applicants who have requested to remain in the same station until their retirement before 31st December 2026 and who have not been allocated accordingly, must submit an appeal via the HRMIS Specialist Module.
- f) Those intending to take early retirement before 31st December 2026 must also upload a clear image of their valid Affidavit under the "Documents" section of their HRMIS profile for verification.
- g) Conflicts with previously submitted affidavits
- h) Applications for remaining vacancies will not be entertained at this stage. Section (Section 09 of the Annual Transfer Circular 2025)
- i) Incorrect Station Tagging:
If the applicant is currently working at a station different from what was tagged in HRMIS.
- j) Transfer Order Conflicts with Leave Status:
Officers who are currently on approved no-pay leave or long-term training and have received a transfer erroneously. (Applied from abroad)
- k) Any other related matter

02. Important Note on Eligibility and Compliance:

- a) Medical Officers who have been selected and allocated in the previous Annual Transfer List are not eligible to apply for the immediately following year's annual transfers, except in the case of newly created vacancies in different institutions as specified in the Annual Transfer Circular.

Any attempt to submit an application will be considered a serious breach of the transfer policy and may be treated as a punishable offence.

All applicants are strongly advised to adhere strictly to the published eligibility criteria to ensure fairness and integrity in the transfer process.

- b) If any officer becomes aware of a PGIM Board-Certified Specialist Medical Officer (certified on or before 31st December 2024) who is currently working in Sri Lanka on a temporary appointment and has not applied for the Annual Transfers 2025, such information can be reported through the Appeals Portal in the HRMIS Specialist Module.

All Specialist Medical Officers are reminded to follow the transfer criteria and act responsibly within the framework of established rules.

All submissions will be reviewed confidentially, and verified cases will be placed at the bottom of the respective speciality list, if any incorrect information has been submitted by an officer and allocated posts at the discretion of the Transfer Board, subject to available vacancies.

Please note that:

- All appeals must be submitted only through the HRMIS-SM Appeals Portal for reviewing.
- All information will be handled with strict confidentiality.
- Appeals must be made on or before the deadline. Late appeals will not be accepted for reviewing.

We request all institutional heads to ensure that this notice is communicated to all Specialist Medical Officers under their purview.
